

Profile for CEA Website

- B.K.SHARMA has done his graduation in Electrical Engineering from MNIT, Jaipur in 1981.
- After working in Indian Oil Corporation for 2 years, he joined CEA as Assistant Director Grade-I in 1984.
- Having vast experience of over 33 years in power sector mainly in transmission & substation design and protection aspects, Power system planning, operational & environmental performance of thermal plants and climate change issues related to power sector.
- Presently working as Principal Chief Engineer and looking after grid management, operation performance monitoring of generation, national Power committee, operation & Distribution technology development, Distribution reforms and regulations, smart grid and smart meters deployment in distribution and implementation of centrally sponsored schemes for distribution systems in the country.