

Privacy policy

- Introduction

Your privacy on the Internet is of the utmost importance to us. Since we gather certain types of information about the users of Central Electricity Authority website and services, we want to ensure that you fully understand the terms and conditions surrounding the capture and use of that information. This privacy statement discloses what information we gather and how we use it.

- Information collected by Central Electricity Authority

For providing feedback on CEA website, you will be asked for personal information, such as your name, address and email address. This information is for customer administration of the site only and is not shared with any third party.

- Non-personally identifiable information

Non-personally identifiable information is only a summary of visitor behavior. Examples include statistics on which pages are most popular and which are least popular. The information collected cannot be traced back to a particular user. The purpose of this data collection is to enable Central Electricity Authority to better understand the preferences of its visitors and improve its site and services. This information is never connected with any personal information you may supply to us if you register on our website.

- Use of Cookies:

When you register for one of our services (when made available) Central Electricity Authority site sets a cookie, a small bit of code stored on your computer's hard drive that enables us to manage your subscriptions and online profile. By setting this cookie, Central Electricity Authority site will remember you the next time you visit and will not ask you for information that you have already provided. You are always free to decline and turn off our cookies if your browser permits, although in that case you may not be able to use certain features on the site and may be required to re-enter information more frequently to use certain services on the website.
