

General guidelines for filling form for manpower in the electricity supply industry.

1. Managerial and higher executives. All engineering post of the rank of Chief Engineer and above is to be included.
2. Technical and scientific officers. All the engineering and above the rank of supervisor/Junior Engineer/Scientific Officer may be included.
3. Non-Technical, all the regular, non-technical employees i.e. Executive; clerical, accounting, revenue collection, meter reading staff and officers may be included.
4. Technical supervisory staff.
 - a) Generation; all technical staff of the rank of supervisors/Sectional officer/Junior engineer/Assistant Controller engaged at generating stations and those associated with planning of generation may be included.
 - b) & c) Similar staff mentioned above engaged in transmission & distribution system.
 - d) & e) Similar staff mentioned above engaged in trading & other activities.
5. a) Technicians and operation staff : All the technical staff below the rank of supervisor/Junior engineer engaged at generating stations.
 - b) & c) Similar staff mentioned above engaged in Transmission and Distribution system.
 - d) & e) Similar staff mentioned above engaged in other activities.