

Website security Policy

The Central Electricity Authority website is hosted on the servers of National Informatics Centre (NIC). Therefore, all security issues related to the website of this Department will be addressed by the NIC. NIC may carryout required security audits as and when required, as per security guidelines.